CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 40

On January 31, 2023, a Case Management Conference was held in this multidistrict litigation. This order memorializes developments in the third and fourth bellwether cases, Case No. 18-cv-1022, Stinson v. Davol, Inc. et al. and Case No. 18-cv-1440, Bryan v. C.R. Bard, Inc. et al.

No later than February 14, 2023, Plaintiff will serve upon Defendants Dr. Beatrice's proposed supplement for the Stinson trial. Defendants are directed to file any corresponding motion by February 21, 2023. Plaintiffs are to file their response to the motion by March 7, 2023, and Defendants are to file their reply by March 14, 2023.

The parties shall confer on the considerations discussed at the Case Management Conference and submit to the Court a proposed trial date for the fourth bellwether trial by February 7, 2023.

The trial schedule in Stinson is modified as follows: unless good cause is otherwise shown, each party will be allowed 32 hours of trial time for the presentation of testimony and any time spent cross-examining the other side's witnesses. The final pretrial conference is rescheduled to Tuesday, May 2, 2023, and Wednesday, May 3, 2023.

The next Case Management Conference with the participation of defense counsel and the PSC will be held via GoToMeeting on March 7, 2023, at 2:00 P.M.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
