Case No. 3:21-md-3004-NJR

MDL No. 3004

CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER NO. 22
REAPPOINTING PLAINTIFFS' LEADERSHIP

ROSENSTENGEL, Chief Judge:

In Case Management Order No. 2 (CMO 2), the Court appointed a small, diverse, inclusive, and experienced leadership group consisting of Co-Lead Counsel, MDL and State Court Liaison Counsel, and a Plaintiffs' Executive Committee (PEC). (Doc. 169). The appointments were personal appointments, such that appointees cannot be substituted by other attorneys without Court approval. (Id. at 9-10). The Order further provided that the Court "may add or replace appointees on their request, on request of Plaintiffs' leadership team, or on its own motion, if and as circumstances warrant." (Id. at 10).

The appointments in CMO 2 were made for a one-year term. After the conclusion of that term, the Court issued CMO 14, reappointing Plaintiffs' leadership team, with modifications to reflect that one member of the original PEC resigned and three members changed firms. (Doc. 2181).

Over two years have passed since the Court issued CMO 14, and circumstances relating to several PEC members and their firms have changed. In one instance, a PEC member changed firms and requests replacement; for two members, the firm name has changed; and in three instances, PEC members changed firms and request to continue in leadership. Having considered these requests, the Court hereby replaces Alicia O'Neill with David P. Matthews and appoints/reappoints the following:
